SUPPLEMENT I

SENTENCING CHART FOR FELONIES COMMITTED ON OR AFTER 5:00 p.m., AUGUST 11, 2000
ARRANGED IN ORDER BY D.C. CODE CITATION (2001)

Use this Supplement to find the Offense Severity Group (OSG), the maximum sentence, and supervised release term the judge may/must impose initially pursuant to D.C. Code § 24-403.01. In some cases, the maximum sentence will depend on factors set forth in the statute. Please refer to the statute. Appendix C contains the same information in alphabetical order by common name. The OSG is blank for enhanced versions of offenses, which have the same OSG as the unenhanced offense. See Section 6.5 (Enhancements).

KEY:

"*"	means that an offense is a Class A felony. A person convicted of such an offense may be imprisoned not more than 5 years upon revocation of supervised release. See D.C. Code 24-403.01(b)(7)(A).
"e"	means that the offense is subject to a statutory enhancement specific to the offense that raises the top of the Guidelines Recommended Sentencing Range (GRSR). See Section 6.5, Appendix F.
"M"	in the minimum column means mandatory minimum, a minimum that generally cannot be suspended. See Section 6.2.1.
"or SOR"	in the supervised release column means that the offense is defined as a "lifetime registration offense" or "registration offense" under D.C. Code § 22-4001(6), (8)[1] and that the judge may impose a greater term of supervised release up to the maximum period of sex offender registration to which the defendant is subject (ten years or life). D.C. Code §§ 22-4001 (6), (8), 24-403.01(b)(4).
"not < X"	in the minimum column means that if the judge imposes a sentence of imprisonment, they cannot impose a sentence of less than X. The judge may impose a sentence of X (or more) and MAY suspend execution of part or all of it. See Section 6.2.2.
"(30/40/60)"	that appears under "LWOR" [Life Without Release] for several offenses, "Life" for Murder 2° and Murder 2° w/a, and under "40" for Carjacking w/a means that the judge cannot impose a sentence in excess of the number in parentheses unless the jury finds an aggravating circumstance beyond a reasonable doubt pursuant to D.C. Code § 24-403.01(b-2).
"same term/fine"	means the same term or fine as the underlying, completed, principal, or predicate offense.
"x the term/fine"	means the preceding number times the term or fine for the underlying offense.
"V" or "D"	in the Violent/Dangerous column, "V" means a Crime of Violence as defined in D.C. Code § 23-1331(4) and "D" means Dangerous Crime as defined in D.C. Code § 22-4501(2).
"w/a"	means an offense subject to additional penalties for committing a COV While Armed under D.C. Code § 22-4502. See Hager v. United States, 791 A.2d 911 (D.C. 2002).

[1] Offenses may be subject to registration where the offense involves: a minor victim; a sexual act or sexual contact without consent or with a minor; assaulting or threatening another with intent to commit a sexual act or sexual contact; or causing the death of another before, during or after such an act. D.C. Code § 22-4001(8)(C)–(F). Since these involve offenses that are not always subject to the registration requirements, "or SOR" was not noted in the Supervised Release column.

However, because of the mandatory minimum 12-month sentence, a Short Split sentence is not permissible under the Guidelines. The court must sentence the defendant to at least 14 months to impose a Guidelines Compliant sentence. If the court determines that a split sentence of 12 months incarceration or more, but less than 14 months, is appropriate, it may sentence the defendant accordingly, but this would constitute a departure from the Guidelines. The court should note the reason for the departure on the docket.

[15] OCDR (felony) is an enhancement, not a separate offense. However, it operates similarly to a separate offense. Therefore, the Guidelines treat it as if it were a separate offense when determining a defendant's applicable sentencing range in the instant case for which it was charged. Backup time and supervised release are not provided since it is technically an enhancement.

[16] OCDR (felony) is classified as an M9 offense only when it is a charge in the instant case. Because it is technically an enhancement, not a distinct separate offense, it should not be scored as part of a defendant's prior CHS.
